HAIR TELLS CHARACTER.
Color of Hair Said to Indicate a Person's Temperament.

Many people believe that blonde, or light hair denotes affection and dark hair constancy. A person without hair is not devoid of character; far from it. The disposition of the average bald-headed man is to show such solicitude for the welfare of others, that he neglects himself. A germ causes baldness. Prof. Sabouraud, of Paris, France, inoculated a rabbit with Dendrocybus, causing it to become totally bald in five weeks' time. To rid the scalp of these dangerous germs it is necessary to apply Newbro's Herpicide.

"Destroy the cause—you remove the effect."
Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Riot in San Francisco.

The fiercest riot San Francisco has witnessed in a generation was a sequel Sunday evening to a meeting of socialists held at Woodward's Pavilion as an expression of sympathy for President Moyer and Secretary Haywood, of the Western Federation of Miners, who are imprisoned in Idaho on the accusation that they were implicated in the assassination of former Governor Steiengberg.

At the meeting violent speeches were made, in which it was declared that Moyer and Haywood were innocent, and that if convicted they would not be hanged unless the entire United States army was brought in to assist in their execution. At the conclusion of the speechmaking a procession was organized and the participants in the assemblage marched down Market street, headed by a band. At the corner of Kearney and Market streets a halt was made and one of the paraders who carried a red lantern climbed Lotta's fountain and affixed the emblem to the topmost lamp. The banner bore the inscription "The Constitution be damned; so say the corporators."

It was decided by the leaders to hold an outdoor meeting and A. C. McGinty was selected to address the crowd. So great was the throng, however, that he could not make himself heard, and Geo. S. Holmes, a metal worker, with a powerful voice, was substituted as speaker. He was in the midst of his talk when Policemen Jack Stelzner and W. H. Cavanaugh and Detective Ryan made their way through the crowd. Ryan tore down the red flag and passed it to Stelzner. Ryan then ordered Holmes to desist, but was met with a refusal and the detective pulled Holmes down to the pavement.

In a moment a riot was precipitated. Stelzner was knocked down and kicked in a vicious hand-to-hand fight, the crowd seeking to recover the flag. Ryan and Cavanaugh came to his assistance, and began beating the crowd with clubs. The flag was torn from Stelzner's grasp, and then Ryan, who had held Holmes all of the time, started to take his prisoner through the crowd, beating a path with his club. An electric car was passing, and halted opportunistically for the detective. He boarded it and the other officers tried to keep the crowd back. Near the fountain a new building is being erected, and the street was full of building debris.

Almost instantly there was a shower of scrapiron, brick and blocks of wood upon the car, and the missiles crashed through the windows, injuring a number of passengers. The motorman was made a target, but he slowly forced his car through the human blockade, and, gaining speed, ultimately reached the Hall of Justice.

In the meantime alarm calls had been sent to neighboring police stations, and patrolmen came hurrying to the scene. They found themselves confronted by a maddened crowd armed with sticks and stones, and for half an hour a lively battle was in progress, the police using their clubs with telling effect and the crowd retaliating viciously. Policeman Stelzner was struck several times by flying bricks and was cut in the neck and head. Policeman Doran was also bruised and cut. Policeman Harry Seguire was seriously hurt. He was knocked down and kicked again and again. Seventeen of the rioters were arrested, three being charged with assault with a deadly weapon. The rest were booked at the prison for misdemeanors. Holmes, the orator, was charged with disturbing the peace. It was fully an hour from the time the trouble started that quiet was restored in the neighborhood.

The Eruption of Vesuvius.

Yesterday was a day of terror for the cities, towns and country about Vesuvius. Unconfirmed reports put the number of dead and injured at several hundred, but not many facts can be obtained upon which to base an accurate estimate. At midnight the situation seemed more assuring, the lava streams having diminished in volume and in some directions have stopped altogether, while a copious rainfall is cooling the lava where it lies stationary.

Almost equally with the devastation wrought by the lava is the damage done by clinders and ashes, which in incredible quantities have been carried great distances. This has caused the practical destruction of San Giuseppe, a place of 6,000 inhabitants. All but 200 of the people have fled from San Giuseppe, and these 200 assembled in a church to attend mass.

While the priest was performing his sacred office the roof fell in and about 60 persons were badly injured. These Danger From The Plague.

There is grave danger from the plague of Coughs and Colds that are so prevalent, unless you take Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. Mrs. Geo. Walls, of Forest City, Me., writes: "It's a Godsend to people living in climates where coughs and colds prevail. I find it quickly ends them. It prevents Pneumonia, cures LaGrippe, gives wonderful relief in Asthma and Hay Fever, and makes weak lungs strong enough to ward off Consumption, Coughs and Colds. 50c and $1.00. Guaranteed at E. unfortunates were for hours without surgical or medical assistance.
The only thing left standing in the church was a statue of St. Anne, the preservation of which the poor, homeless people accepted as a miracle and promise of deliverance from their peril.
At Ottajano 5 churches and 10 houses fell under the weight of ashes and cinders, which lie four feet deep on the ground. In the fall of the buildings about 12 persons were killed and many were injured. The village is deserted. After the evacuation of the place the barracks and prisons fill in.
Reports from coast and inland towns depict terrible devastation.
At many places the people are suffering from panic, and a state of great confusion exists, which has been added to by superstition. Some of the parish priests refused to open their churches to people who tried to obtain admittance, fearing that an earthquake would destroy them while full of people, and thus increase the disaster. Crowds of women attacked the churches, pulled down the doors and took possession of the pictures and statues of the saints, which they carried about as a protection against death.
